CHARLES CROUCH,

Has received in the laſt Veſſels from LONDON,

A CONSIGNMENT

Of the ſeveral ARTICLES undermentioned, which may be had at his Printing-Office in Elliott-Street, on the moſt reaſonable Terms, viz.

A FRESH PARCEL of Dr. KEYSER's FAMOUS PILLS,

With FULL DIRECTIONS for their Uſe in all CASES.

Where may be ſeen, A NARRATIVE of the Effects of Dr. KEYSER's MEDICINE, with an Account of its ANALYSIS, by the Members of the Royal Academy of Sciences, ſhewing it to be the mildeſt, ſafeſt, and moſt efficacious Remedy ever yet diſcovered.

 It were needleſs to trouble the Public with more Encomiums on the Effects of this Remedy, in every State of a certain Diſorder; in the Courſe of ſeveral Years, great Numbers of Perſons, ſuffering in almoſt every Stage of that Malady, who, after ſteadily attending to the Directions given with each Box, have declared their Recovery to a perfect State of Health.

In England the Duke of Bedford and Earl Ligonier, and in France the Dukes of Nivernois, Choiſeul, Praſlin, and the Marſhal Duke of Biron, have given public Teſtimony of many ſucceſsful Experiments made by the firſt Phyſicians and Surgeons, upon the moſt miſerable Spectacles, in an Army of Two Hundred Thouſand Soldiers, from whom Seven Thouſand Patients were ſelected, cured and diſmiſſed. The Gentlemen of the Faculty in Europe, after the moſt convincing Proofs in Favour of the Medicine, greatly contributed to eſtabliſh the Reputation of Dr. KEYSER's PILLS, having pronounced the Uſe of them ſuperior in Efficacy to all the Modes of Practice hitherto diſcovered. They have perfectly reſtored to Health, Perſons afflicted with the Venereal Diſeaſe, Dropſical Diſorders, the Gravel, Palſy, Apoplexy, White-ſwellings, Stiff Joints, and the Aſthma.

Dr. NELSON's ANTISCORBUTIC DROPS, which have been found by many Years Experience, to ſurpaſs all other Remedies hitherto diſcovered in the Cure of the Scurvy, Rheumatiſm, Yaws, Venereal Diſeaſe, Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes, Ulcers of all Kinds, &c.

ESSENTIAL OIL of MINT. This is an excellent Remedy, in Want of Appetite, reachings to vomit, and vomiting itſelf. It ſtrengthens the almoſt Paralytic Weakneſſes of the Stomach, and may be uſed either internally or externally; it is taken on a Lump of Sugar, from ten to twelve Drops.

Dr. RYAN's Incomparable WORM-DESTROYING SUGAR PLUMBS.

Dr. HILL's genuine TINCTURE of VALERIAN. This pleaſant Cordial and enlivening Medicine, is good againſt all Nervous Diſorders, Fits, Head-Achs, Weakneſs, Heavineſs, and Lowneſs of Spirits, Dimneſs of the Sight, Vapours and Melancholy, all Kinds of Convulſions, and Hyſteric Complaints, Epilepſies, as alſo againſt the Sickneſs of the Stomach, and Flatulencies, Obſtructions, and the Convulſive Aſthma, &c. The proper Uſe in all the above Caſes, may be ſeen in the Directions given with each Bottle.

Dr. BOERHAAVE's GRAND BALSAM of HEALTH. An admirable Remedy for the Dry Belly-Ach, Cholic, Griping in the Bowels, Pain in the Stomach; it cleanſes the Stomach, and procures an Appetite.

ESSENCE of BALM of GILEAD, a grand Reſtorative of decayed Nature, good in all Seminal Weakneſſes, Hypochondriacal and Nervous Diſorders, with the Variety of Symptoms which indicate a weak and infirm Conſtitution.

Its cordial and balmy Quality, renders it alſo an agreeable palatable Liquor, and prodigiouſly refreſhing in the ſultry Heat of Summer; preventing thoſe Sinkings which over-power the Spirits in hot Weather. The proper Uſe of this noble Medicine may be ſeen in the Directions.

STOMACHIC LOZENGES. They ſtrengthen and fortify by their balſamic and nutritive Virtues, the tender Veſſels of the Stomach, help Digeſtion, and promote Chylification; they melt in the Mouth like Sugar, are of a moſt agreeable taſte, and fail not to correct the Breath, and the impure Exhalations of the Stomach.

Where alſo may be had,

JOYCE's GREAT AMERICAN BALSAM, extracted from the beſt Medicinal Herbs, &c. for the Cure of the following Diſorders, incident to human Nature; proved from Experience in New-York, Long-Iſland, and elſewhere, to equal, and rather exceed any Balſam, Eſſence, or Elixir, &c. exported from Europe here, for the ſeveral Diſorders hereafter mentioned.

For common green or freſh Wounds, it heals at once or twice dreſſing, by cloſing the Lips of the Wound, and laying on the Wound a Pledgit of Lint dipt in the Balſam. In Nervous Wounds, where the Blood Veſſels are divided, &c. it ſtops the Blood immediately, and heals by a few Applications. For the Cure of the moſt inveterate Ulcers, only waſh them and keep them clean, uſing firſt if there be any proud Fleſh, a common Cauſtick, to take the Excreſſence away, then apply the Balſam on Lint. If the Ulcers ſhould happen to be fiſtulous, inject by a Syringe, and after cloſe the Orifice with a Pledgit dipt in the Balſam, and ſo repeat. There are Witneſſes undeniable of the Balſam alone curing a Fiſtula in Ano, now preſent in New-York: The Author of this Balſam, (under God) will engage to cure a Fiſtula in Ano, even if the Rectum is perforated, without Inciſion, except as much by a Lancet to make Way for Injection, and no more. For the Cure of Colds, attended with violent Coughing, Pains in the Breaſt, Inflammation in the Throat and Glands, Difficulty of Breathing, being obſtructed by tough viſcid Phleghm; by taking a Tea Spoonful of the Balſam, mixed with Sugar or Honey, it quickly cures, taken twice a Day, Morning faſting, and at Night going to Bed. It is exceeding good in all Manner of Swellings; for violent Falls or inward Bruiſes, nothing is better, for it ſcatters coadgulated Blood, and ſtops Blood that might be occaſioned by the inward Parts being hurt, or a Rexis of Veſſels inwardly. In the Cure of Pleurify, after Bleeding (where it is required) give a Tea Spoonful three Times a Day, in Sugar, and between Times now and then 20 or 30 Drops of ſpirituous Nitri dulcis, that is the ſweet Spirits of Nitre.---It cures Conſumptions in them that are not too far gone, except they paſs the Age of Fifty, by taking of it inwardly three Times a Day, a full Tea Spoonful mixt with Sugar or Honey, each Doſe. It ſtrengthens the Nerves, and is good in all Nervous Diſorders, by taking of it inwardly, and anointing the Parts outwardly, keeping warm.

THE AGUE TINCTURE.

The Patient muſt take a Table Spoonful of the ELIXIR, two Hours before the Approach of the Fit, and be immediatly put to Bed, and excited to ſweat, by being very warmly covered. Every Half Hour repeat the Doſe in the ſame Quantity, until he or ſhe has taken Four; you are to obſerve the giving it with a little Sugar, to make it palatable, and to let the laſt Doſe be given juſt as the Fit comes on; this will infallibly perform the Cure.

The GOLDEN TINCTURE,

Infallibly cures the Hyſterick Convulſions, let them be ever ſo violent or long ſtanding: It cures Children who are ſeized with Convulſions, when all other Remedies fail: It cures Perſons who, from a Cold, or the Relique of a Pleuriſy, may have a Pain in the Breaſt: It cures all Epilepſies and Convulſions in a few Hours, ſo as not to apprehend a Return.

For Adults, the Doſe is 80 Drops in a Spoonful of Tea, or Water, to be repeated every three Hours, until the Fit is gone.

For thoſe of Ten Years of Age, or thereabouts, who may be afflicted with Fits, give 20 Drops, in a Tea Spoonful of Water, and proceed as above.

To Children of a Month or younger, you may, with all Safety, give 5 Drops in a Tea Spoonful of Water, and repeat as before, which you may (under GOD) depend on a ſpeedy and ſafe Cure.

LONDON, APRIL 23.

Extract of a letter from Copenhagen, March 26.

"YOU have frequently deſired me to write you ſome particulars of the very intereſting proceedings at preſent carrying on in this country. The reports propagated on this occaſion are ſo many and various, that it was impoſſible hitherto to ſend you any thing in the leaſt to be relied on. The proceedings of the commiſſions, however, being now finiſhed, herewith you will receive the contents of the ſpeech made by the Attorney General Uldahl (the Norton of this country) [illegible] Queen, on the 10th of the preſent month, the day the ſaid Commiſſion ſat.

"IN an advertiſement prefixed to this ſpeech, mention is made of the late revolution in Denmark on January 17; of a Commiſſion being appointed by his Daniſh Majeſty, to try the perſons charged with having projected a revolution to the detriment of the King, &c. Alſo that ſeſſions and trials have been held almoſt every day ſince on the parties accuſed; that ſeveral members of the Commiſſion have been to Cronenburgh, to hear the defence of the Queen on certain imputed articles; that as there are perſonages concerned in it that cannot abſolutely be ranked with the ſubjects of Majeſty, there ariſes a problem, "Whether a ſubject of the kingdom can be appointed their judge." The names of the gentlemen of the Commiſſion are next mentioned, being in number 39; and the advertiſement concludes with informing the public, that during the ſitting of the Commiſſion his Majeſty diſcharged Mr. Uldahl of his oath, in order to enable him to perform, with the greater ſpirit and impartiality his duty to his clients; and Mr. Attorney General acquitted himſelf well. For this purpoſe he had previouſly been at Cronenburgh, to confer with his great client, on this affair; he afterwards made a ſpeech in that aſſembly, with which he entered on the defence.

"The ſpeech to which the foregoing is an introduction, does not contain any particulars of the Queen's examination or defence, but rather ſome obſervations on the nature of the buſineſs then before the great Commiſſion, and a recommendation to them of a ſtrict adherence to impartiality, preparatory to the Attorney General Uldahl's defence of the Queen. The moſt material paſſages are as follow:

"The King himſelf now ſubmits his own conduct to your judgment; his moſt gracious condeſcenſion allows you in certain reſpects not to conſider the Monarch; you are allowed an unlimited liberty to examine, approve, or cenſure all actions; and the ſame condeſcenſion allows me alſo to ſpeak all my thoughts, and ſo undertake the vindication of the defendants.

"In whatever light I conſider this affair, I find ſo much matter for reflection in the proceedings againſt the perſon of the Queen, that I cannot abſolutely approve the whole. Equity bids us now to conſider the King's and his Royal Conſort's perſons in a two-fold point of view, in the ſame inſtant in which the order for her impriſonment was given and executed: we muſt conſider them either as Majeſties, or as a married pair; and the former view I think to be now the chief object under our conſideration.

"One of the moſt important queſtions neceſſarily and immediately ariſing from the very name of Majeſty, is this; "How far a crime of State can be imputed to the Majeſty of a Queen, without degrading her to, and treating her like, the claſs of the ſubjects of the Kingdom and the King." And how is it poſſible to admit ſuch a degradation? The connection in which ſhe ſtands as a Royal Conſort, cannot give the leaſt right to ſuch a ſtep. To mention but one of the ſlighteſt arguments: as after the King's demiſe, and during the minority of his ſucceſſor, the law allows a Queen Dowager's Majeſty to be entruſted with the helm of the ſtate; this very ſame right alſo tacitly implies for, and adjudges to a Queen, a total exemption from ſubjection, even during the life of her Royal Spouſe, though a Queen is very far from being entitled to guide the helm of the ſtate during the life of her Conſort. And does not her high birth, as a Princeſs of a foreign ſtate, alſo directly and abſolutely exempt her from that ſubjection? I think, yes, it does. Can then ſuch a perſonage lawfully be proceeded againſt like a ſubject of the ſtate? Not even to mention here, that it is to a Queen's perſon the whole ſtate owes the preſervation of the Royal Line, does ſhe not give us lawful heirs to the throne? She therefore cannot poſſibly be treated in the ſame manner as one who is a native of the ſtate, or an acquired ſubject of the Crown, and whoſe ſubjection only depends on the Monarch's Majeſty.

"But we muſt not content ourſelves with having here conſidered the ſide of Majeſty; we will direct our attention to another point of view; we will conſider her only as a married Conſort; we will paſs over all theſe rights, of which an abſolute Monarch may avail himſelf rigorouſly to proceed againſt his ſubjects, and to adjuſt his ſentence on them to his own wiſdom. Yet even here alſo I am far from finding, that a huſband has an unlimited power over his wife's perſon: Marriage being only a "Covenant whoſe end conſiſts in mutual help and propagation of their race." Are then not eccleſiaſtical courts inſtituted for the welfare of a ſtate, on purpoſe only to protect theſe rights, to maintain their order, and to ſee juſtice done to the party who brings her complaints againſt the other before theſe courts? and can then any ſentence be determined upon before both parties have been heard, and that equitable maxim "audiatur et altera pars," been obſerved?

"Conſider well, Gentlemen, whether in hoc ſtatu, and in this inſtance, the reverſe has not already happened. That violence with which Queen C. has been treated, notoriouſly ſhews her degradation from her rank, her birth, and her rights as a Royal Conſort; nay, in general, from that tie by which ſhe is connected with the Monarchie; and the only way of reſtoring her in ſome meaſure to the ſplendor of her condition and her prerogatives, is to reſtore her to liberty; and how far matrimonial obligations can be aboliſhed, may moſt ſafely be judged by the eccleſiaſtical laws of our ſtate.

"Your own wiſdom, Gentlemen, your love for Juſtice, and your impartiality, make me hope, that the arguments which I am now laying before you, and ſuch as I ſhall further alledge, will meet with your unbiaſſed and mature conſideration. It would be needleſs here to recapitulate all what that great perſonage has alledged in her own defence. All theſe papers are in your hands. Read and judge yourſelves, and then your own ſentiments cannot but coincide with my thoughts, and approve of my arguments, of which I will lay before you a deduction, more ample, and I hope, much more ſolid, than what the few minutes I am allowed to ſpeak before you can admit.

"The King has appointed you Judges, and on your determinations alone the protection of the rights of Majeſty, the preſervation of monarchial power, and the ſupport of the kingdom's liberty, will depend. In conſequence to your ſentence only offences will be viewed in a ſtronger or milder light; and you are entruſted with the power of degrading a perſonage from her high birth, her prerogatives, and her rights of Majeſty; nay, entirely to diveſt her of them. You only are now to act as definitive judges between [illegible] Huſband and his [illegible] equal. We can only defend ourſelves, and our defence can be derived from no other arguments than thoſe of juſtice and of equity."

Extract of a letter from Chelmsford, April 13.

"On Sunday night about eleven o'clock, a mob aſſembled in this place, armed with bludgeons, to the amount of about fifty, and were very riotous all night: by four o'clock in the morning they increaſed to the number of three hundred or more, when they ſet off for Mr. Bullen's, Mr. Marrage's, and Mr. Harrington's mills, from whence they took large quantities of flour, meal, &c. and brought it in waggons, under a ſtrong guard, to the market place in Chelmsford, to ſell at a price they approved of. Mr. Harrington expoſtulated for ſome time with their Captain or Chief, on the unjuſt and illegal methods they had taken, but to no effect, for they grew exceedingly riotous, and obliged Mr. Harrington to deliver them ten ſacks of flour and meal, and alſo to promiſe them ten ſacks more the next day; they then took his waggon and horſes, loaded it, and proceeded in triumph to Chelmsford. They have ſince been at Mr. Johnſon's, at Baddow, &c. &c. regaling themſelves at every houſe till they were quite riotous. They now intend paying a viſit to the farmers, and have this evening begun with Mr. John Ward, of Biſhop's-Hall, from which place they have taken two loads of wheat. The market place is now filled up with great quantities of wheat and flour, which they have plundered. We have ſent to the War-office for troops to aſſiſt us, but none are as yet arrived. The inhabitants are in great conſternation, for this moment a very conſiderable body are marching into town, with colours flying, and armed with bludgeons, &c. &c. God only knows where this will end.---Accounts are juſt received from Sudbury, Colcheſter, Whiteham, &c. that there is great robbing there, and that the parties intend to join."

Extract of a letter from Bury, St. Edmunds, April 16.

"Yeſterday Sir Charles Davers, and ſome other gentlemen, marched in here at the head of above 300 horſemen, gathered together in a few hours. They conſiſted of farmers and their ſervants, who came to aſſiſt if neceſſary, and have received orders to be ready on the firſt notice of a diſturbance.

"We have now in our goal ſixteen rioters from Sudbury, and it is an alarming circumſtance, that the whole country ſeems in motion.

"It were much to be wiſhed that our miniſtry would ſeriouſly take into conſideration the real grievances of the poor: Every conſiderate perſon think it is the landlords and their ſtewards, the great farmers and monopolizers that are the real cauſe of the preſent dearneſs of proviſions, and not the want of crops. Our laws empower a Magiſtrate to fix the price of bread; why might they not have proper inſpectors appointed to examine the crops and ſtocks in hand? But this I fear is more to be wiſhed than expected."

APRIL 25. Accounts from Corſica inform us of a moſt cruel war being carried on in that iſland between the French and miſerable natives; a war reſembling the hunting parties of ſavages on one ſide, and the brutal reſiſtance of enraged beaſts of prey on the other; who, as ſoon as thoſe bloody conflicts are over, retreat again to their dens, caverns, and inacceſſible fortreſſes.

All defence of the Queen of Denmark, on the charge of adultery, is totally given up; but that is the leaſt criminal part of her conduct. The laſt expreſs is ſaid to have brought an account, that ſhe is divorced from the King her huſband, and that ſhe will be delivered up to the Engliſh Ambaſſador, who has inſtructions to convey her to Hanover.

It is aſſerted, that certain advices have been received from France, that the report of the Pretender's marriage with the Princeſs of Stolberg, is entirely deſtitute of truth.

APRIL 28. On Friday night Sir Joſeph York, his Majeſty's Ambaſſador at the Hague, arrived at the Houſe of his brother the Earl of Hardwick, in St. James's Square, from that place; but he was not yeſterday at Court.

The appeal between a Nobleman and Mr. Penn, which took up ſeveral days before a committee of the Privy Council at Whitehall, relative to the property of a place, called Mill Iſland, on the river Delaware, near Philadelphia, is determined in favour of the latter.

This day the Houſe of Commons met according to adjournment, for the diſpatch of buſineſs.

APRIL 30. It is ſaid that a Chapter of the moſt noble Order of the Garter will be held on Monday next at St. James's, in order to inveſt Lord North with the dignity thereof.

They write from Portſmouth, that the regiment quartered at Goſport has received orders to hold themſelves in readineſs to embark for Gibraltar.

Upwards of 150 ſhips have ſailed this ſeaſon from Poole for the Newfoundland fiſhery.

The Eaſt-India Company have reduced the number of their ſhips one fourth part of that they ſent out laſt year.

Extract of a Letter from Copenhagen, April 13.

"The fate of the unhappy Struenſee is at length determined ---he is to die---and has received notice of it, in order to prepare himſelf for the dreadful moment. He is now permitted the free uſe of pen, ink, and paper; and he wrote a letter to his mother yeſterday, in anſwer to one he received from her. Dr. Munter attends him very aſſiduouſly every day in the priſon; and he is greatly excited to this by the happy effects which his exhortations viſibly have on the unhappy Count.

Sir Joſeph York attended the levee at St. James's yeſterday, for the firſt time ſince his arrival from the Hague, and afterwards had a conference with his Majeſty.

By the lateſt advices from Sicily, mount Ætna threw out ſuch a quantity of cinders and flames during the laſt month, that the fields upwards of three leagues round were entirely ruined. Several ſhocks of earthquakes have likewiſe been felt in that country.

They write from Paris, that M. de Grimaldi, brother to the Biſhop of Mans, has begun a proceſs againſt the Prince of Monaco, claiming that principality, the latter being deſcended only from a female branch. It is apprehended by many, that the former will carry his point.

With regard to the fate of the Queen of Denmark, this is certain: That ſhe is to be ſent to Zell, and to have a penſion, in lieu of her portion, from Denmark, equal to 4000 l. per annum ſterling. It is alſo certain, that her looſe behaviour in the Court, was too notorious to be in any manner vindicated; but there were other crimes of a blacker dye laid againſt her. Our Court ſay, that the fleet which they had ordered prevented any other puniſhment being inflicted upon her, than a divorce. This is, however, doubted by many; who ſay, that upon a fleet's being ordered to be fitted out, the French and Pruſſian Miniſters interfered, which ſo effectually frightened our Court, they gave private aſſurances, the orders for fitting out the fleet ſhould be countermanded, if they would join in an application to the Daniſh Court, to deliver up the Queen to the Engliſh Miniſter, who ſhould conduct her to Zell;---which has been complied with. Without metaphor or exaggeration, ſhe may be juſtly called the Meſſalina of Denmark.

Some beautiful ſamples of the cotton manufactory, now carrying on in Philadelphia, have lately been imported, which are much admired.

MAY 2. Yeſterday Lord Mansfield ſat as Speaker in the Houſe of Peers, in the room of the Lord Chancellor, who is not yet perfectly recovered of his indiſpoſition.

Extract of a letter from Berlin, April 14.

"The Engliſh Chargé des Affaires, Mr. Burnet, returned yeſterday from Potſdam, where he has been to take leave of his Majeſty, and is to return to London in a few days. On the 20th of June, the French Refugees will hold their Jubilee, as it will be juſt 100 years ſince they had permiſſion to ſettle in the [illegible] and exerciſe their religion. The King has declared, that as long as he lives he will grant [illegible] tion. A medal is ſtruck upon this occaſion, with the inſcription, "Azyle donné a la foi par la charité."

It is ſaid, that yeſterday orders were given to ſeveral of his Majeſty's domeſticks to be in readineſs to embark for Copenhagen, to conduct Queen Carolina Matilda to Zell, in the electorate of Hanover, which is fixed upon at preſent for the place of her reſidence. And that the ſame day orders were ſent to Captain Hamilton, who is to have the command of one man of war and two frigates, to ſail the beginning of next week for that purpoſe.

His Majeſty's ſhip Chatham, of 50 guns, is now fitting out for ſea at Portſmouth, as a flag ſhip, on board of which Vice Admiral Parry will hoiſt his flag for the Weſt-Indies, where ſhe is to be ſtationed for three years.

Yeſterday morning early, an expreſs arrived from Briſtol for the act of parliament which paſſed this ſeſſion, relating to perſons ſtanding mute on their trials, after arraignment; it was occaſioned by the famous Mr. Britain refuſing to plead to any of the indictments againſt him; and we hear the Recorder (who is Counſellor Dunning) did not care to paſs ſentence till he had received a copy of that act.

A viſit from the Dauphin and Dauphineſs of France to this Court, during the courſe of the ſummer, is much talked of at St. James's.

The Hon. Eaſt-India Company have reſolved to ſend a large quantity of ammunition, and a reinforcement of 8000 men for the defence of their ſettlements in India.

MAY 5. A letter from Altona, dated April 13, concludes thus: "This day's poſt from Copenhagen is not arrived yet; but an expreſs is juſt come here; ſince which it is ſaid that the K--- of D-------- is to be married to a Princeſs of Swedt. All things are now kept very ſecret."

Extract of a letter from Copenhagen, April 18.

"Laſt Wedneſday all the domeſticks belonging to the Queen's houſhold, had orders to be ready to embark in a few days, on board a frigate that lies ready to carry them to Aalbourg; and all the ſilver ſervice for the Queen, conſiſting of four dozen of plates, beſides diſhes, tureens, and other neceſſaries, are ſent on board. The Engliſh Ambaſſador, Sir Robert Keith, has received two expreſſes this week, and the Daniſh expreſs, Brummer, likewiſe arrived here this week."

We hear that the Spaniſh Ambaſſador now here is ſhortly to be recalled, and he will be ſucceeded by the Duke de Villharmoſa lately arrived here.

A Nobleman lately arrived in the neighbourhood of St. James's from Rome, is greatly ſuſpected to have come here on a ſecret embaſſy; it is known that he has had ſeveral audiences of a great perſonage, and that he does not ſend his diſpatches to Rome by the poſt, but by ſpecial meſſengers.

On Saturday five waggons loaded with proviſions and other neceſſaries, were ſent from St. James's for Deal, to be put on board his Majeſty's ſhips deſtined for Denmark, to conduct the Princeſs Carolina Matilda to Zell; and this day ſeveral of the officers belonging to the Board of Green Cloth will ſet out to embark on board the ſaid ſhips.

Yeſterday the lady of his Excellency the Daniſh Ambaſſador, who lately arrived here from that kingdom, was introduced to their Majeſties.

It is ſaid that the parliament will not riſe till the beginning of June.

Extract of a letter from Copenhagen, April 21.

"It is ſaid that this morning ſentence was paſſed on the Counts Struenſee and Brandt, but it is not publicly known yet what puniſhment they are to ſuffer. The reports of the news brought by ſeveral expreſſes which lately arrived here are variable. It is, however, certain, that the Queen Carolina Matilda's houſhold, which was embarked on board the frigate Tranquebar, is countermanded; ſince which it is aſſerted, that the Queen will have her reſidence at Zell in the electorate of Hanover."

Extract of a letter from the Hague, May 1.

"The poſt is juſt arrived from Copenhagen, ſince which it is reported that Count Struenſee is beheaded, and that Count Brandt has had his right hand cut off, and is condemned to perpetual impriſonment."

Zell, the place talked of for the reſidence of the Queen of Denmark, is the capital of a Duchy of that name, ſituated on the river Aller, in Germany, where the Fuhſe falls into it, 35 miles ſouth from Lunenbourg, 28 miles north from Hanover, and 25 north eaſt from Brunſwick. The palace is a ſquare building, adorned with pleaſant gardens, orchards, and grottos, is moated round, and was built in 1485.

By a letter received at Amſterdam, dated April 21, it is authenticated, that a Spaniſh frigate which arrived the week before at Ferrol, from Buenos Ayres, brought advice that the Portugueſe ſubjects who ſettled at Rio de Janeiro, finding no redreſs to their grievances, and that nothing but one oppreſſion was to ſucceed another, bravely took the reſolution to do that juſtice to themſelves, which they could not obtain either of the King of Portugal or of his Viceroy; and that when this frigate left the continent of the Brazils, the ſubjects at Rio de Janeiro had recourſe to arms, and that this dangerous inſurrection, it was thought, would not eaſily be quelled, at leaſt not without firſt ſacrificing the Viceroy as a victim to the enraged and exaſperated inſurgents.

Yeſterday the Lord Chancellor ſat as Speaker in the Houſe of Peers, for the firſt time ſince his recovery from his late indiſpoſition.

By a letter arrived yeſterday from Briſtol, we learn, that Britain has received ſentence to be hanged.

EDINBURGH, April 3. The military that marched from Glaſgow laſt week for Ireland, got orders not to embark, on account of advice being received that the late diſturbances there were entirely quelled, and that the principal inſurgents were already apprehended and ſent to Dublin.

DUBLIN, April 24. The corporation of Londonderry have preſented the freedom of that city in a ſilver box to Richard Johnſon, Eſq; of Gilford, in the county of Down, as a mark of their approbation of his conduct, and in teſtimony of the juſt ſenſe they have of the ſervices he has done this kingdom, by his active and ſpirited conduct in endeavouring to ſuppreſs the northern inſurrections, and to bring the perſons therein concerned to juſtice.

APRIL 25. We hear from Derry, that ſeveral bills of indictment have been found by the Grand Jury of that city and county againſt the inſurgents and rioters, called the Hearts of Steel, who are daily flying from juſtice.

NEWRY, April 20. At the aſſizes held at Armagh laſt week, bills of indictment were found againſt ſome of the people, called Hearts of Steel.

PETERSBURGH, March 28. The courier diſpatched from hence, five weeks ſince, is returned, and brings the important intelligence, that the Porte has acceded, with the greateſt earneſtneſs, to an armiſtice, and to the holding a congreſs. And we have the greateſt reaſon to hope for the eſtabliſhment of a laſting peace, under the mediation of the Courts of Vienna and Berlin, who both act with the moſt laudable vigour to bring this deſirable event to a concluſion.

WARSAW, April 1. Yeſterday the Ruſſian Ambaſſador received an expreſs from Jaſſy, and we hear the congreſs will ſoon be opened there, as ſeveral great houſes are already taken for the Miniſters. The Turks would have rather had it at Buchareſt; and they ſeem now to be in earneſt about this great work.

WARSAW, April 15. It is now certain that the congreſs is opened at Jaſſy. On the part of the Ruſſians, Mr. Simolin is in correſpondance with the Turkiſh Seraſtier Mouſſon Oglou. Notwithſtanding this, the warlike preparations continue, but it is hoped that a peace will render them unneceſſary.

COPENHAGEN, April 12. At length ſome particulars have [illegible] commiſſion on the 6th inſt. which day will be memorable in the hiſtory of this kingdom. The Queen Carolina is condemned to perpetual impriſonment, and conſequently her marriage with the King our Sovereign is annulled. Tho' the Court has not yet thought proper to publiſh this ſentence, it is nevertheleſs true. Counſellor Bang read the accuſations againſt the Queen, which ſeemed to be pretty numerous, as they filled four ſheets of paper. The Attorney General Uldahl ſpoke in favour of the accuſed party, and acquitted himſelf with ſo much eloquence in the cauſe of the young Queen, that he drew tears from the whole audience. The five following queſtions gave riſe to the great debates among the Judges: 1ſt, How the divorce was to be performed? 2dly, What title the Queen ſhould have after the diſſolution of the marriage? 3dly, How to act with reſpect to the young Princeſs? 4thly, What penſion ſhould be allowed the Queen? 5thly, What place ſhould be fixed upon for the Queen's impriſonment? The three ladies who are to accompany the Queen in her impriſonment, which will probably be in the caſtle of Aalbourgh, are to engage by oath not to abſent themſelves from the priſon after eight o'clock in the evening in ſummer, and ſix in winter.

The whole Court cannot but lament the fate of this unhappy Princeſs, who is not yet 21 years of age, and condemned to perpetual impriſonment. It is aſſured that the King is going to viſit his German dominions, and that he will ſet out the 23d inſtant. We are impatient to know the fate of the other State priſoners, to whom the preſent circumſtances ſeem to preſage nothing very favourable.

Mr. Keith having expreſſed a deſire to return home, was anſwered, that he might go whenever he thought proper. At the ſame time a courier was diſpatched to Baron Dieden for his recall. It is ſaid, that this Miniſter is ordered to declare to the Britiſh Court, that the Queen will be permitted to return to her own country, upon condition that ſhe will give ſecurity never to ſet foot again in Denmark.

April 18. Laſt Sunday the Commiſſion of Inquiſition aſſembled at the caſtle, and the next day the ſtate priſoners were again interrogated in the citadel. The Counſellors who are charged to plead the cauſe of the Counts Struenſee and de Brandt, have demanded and obtained a delay of eight days.

ROTTERDAM, April 12. Advices have been received here from the Eaſt-Indies, which inform us that the Engliſh are beſieging the Nabob of Tanjour in his capital; and they farther add, that they intend to build a fortreſs at Negano, a maritime port about half a league from Negapatnam, belonging to the Nabob of Tanjour. This event will be very diſagreeable to the Dutch Company, as the Engliſh may, by that ſituation, ruin the Dutch trade there.

VIENNA, April 15. The courier that was expoſted from Conſtantinople, arrived here with the news, that the armiſtice between the Porte and Ruſſia was concluded the 5th of this month, and that the congreſs is to be held at Jaſſy.

ALTONA, April 17. This moment arrived the poſt from Copenhagen, and we can aſſure you, that the divorce of the King from his Queen has been declared. She is to be ſtiled Princeſs of Aalbourg, and is not to bear the King's arms.

PARIS, April 17. The Porte has conſented to the following conditions; 1. That the holding of a congreſs ſhould be no longer delayed. 2. That this congreſs ſhould be held in Walachia. 3. That the Danube ſhould ſerve as a boundary to both armies during the congreſs. 4. That in caſe the negociations for a peace ſhould prove fruitleſs, the armiſtice ſhould nevertheleſs continue for the ſpace of three months, reckoning from the day of the breaking up of the congreſs.

HAMBURGH, April 24. Letters from Copenhagen adviſe, that the commiſſion of enquiry has been again aſſembled to interrogate Col. Falkenſchiold, and a regiment of dragoons is ſent to Aalbourg to guard that caſtle. Theſe letters add, that during the laſt examination which Count Struenſee underwent, he made a very pathetic ſpeech which drew tears from the eyes of his Judges, particularly the Preſident Juel Wind; that he confeſſed himſelf guilty, implored the clemency of his Sovereign, and begged if he muſt die that he might ſuffer privately in the Caſtle, and not be expoſed to public view: He finiſhed his diſcourſe with ſoliciting favour to be ſhewn the other priſoners, whoſe diſgrace he had been the author of. The Commiſſaries of the Tribunal have been with the Queen at Cronenbourg. Several things have been ſaid on that ſubject, which diſcretion will not permit us to publiſh.

April 28. By authentic advices from Copenhagen we are informed, that a divorce is agreed upon between the King and Queen of Denmark, but the Queen is to have all the privileges due to her high rank. Her Majeſty will be entirely at liberty, and will not go to Aalbourg but to Zell. The Princeſs her daughter will be brought up in the noble diſcipline of Wallee in Seeland. All the retinue that was to follow the Queen to Aalbourg has been diſmiſſed, as her Majeſty is to go to Zell, and others are engaged, partly Engliſh and partly Hanoverians. It is ſaid her Majeſty will go by water to Lubeck, from thence by Launberg and Lunzberg to Zell, where the Caſtle is prepared for her reception.

PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 18.

Saturday laſt arrived here the ſhip Jupiter, Captain Ewing, from Londonderry, in a ſhort paſſage, who brought with him, and landed at New-Caſtle and this place, 430 paſſengers, all in good health. It is ſaid the high price of lands and proviſions will induce great numbers to leave Ireland for America this year.

Captain Allen from Barbados, informs, that on the 17th of May, the ſhip Cunliff, Captain Clap, from Cork and Madera, with King's ſtores, for Barbados, ran aſhore on a place called Auſtend's Reef, which lies on the S. E. ſide of the iſland, where the veſſel is loſt, but the people and beſt part of the cargo ſaved.

Extract of a Letter from a gentleman in London, dated the 11th of April, 1772.

"Lord Rochford hath applied to the Crown for a grant of all the iſlands in the river Delaware, from the Capes to lat. 41 N. the petition was refered to the board of trade, where ſome perſons were examined in ſupport of it, and gave ſuch an unfavourable account of their ſtate, as enabled the board to report in favour of the petition to the Lords in Council. Their report was made the 17th of March laſt, and it was to have been finally determined about the firſt of this inſt. by the Lords, but the hearing was with difficulty got put off till laſt Wedneſday, on account of Counſellor Dunning's indiſpoſition, who was employed by the Proprietaries to appear for them againſt the grant. Several gentlemen were examined before them laſt Thurſday, upon oath, who ſaid many things reſpecting their culture, ſituation and property, which ſeemed to give a very different impreſſion."

Extract of another Letter from the ſame, dated April 14, 1772.

"This day hath produced the defeat of Lord Rochford's petition for the Delaware Iſlands, which I mentioned to you in my laſt: To my great aſtoniſhment, this morning the Attorney General, after having ſpoke ſome time to the petition, informed the Lords, that his Lordſhip had ſignified his deſire to him of not proſecuting that affair any farther, not deſiring to ſolicit, or receive the King's favour, to the detriment of a number of people, who might have been long ſettled. This muſt be a very agreeable piece of intelligence to the concerned, as it was to me who am not intereſted in it further than my regard to juſtice influences me. Something ſhould be done by all iſland owners jointly, to prevent the event of any ſuch meaſure in future, which may be contrived to rob them of their property unjuſtly."
